

Mixer Camera

While running the mixer, batches of SCC maintained a more consistent spread if the batch operator physically looked at every batch. This was difficult because the batch operator had other responsibilities that kept them in the mixer room

The solution was to create a camera and light system using an underwater camera 1080P HD with a pool light to monitor the mix at all stages. The system was bolted atop the mixer and provides live video to the mixer station

Rinker
MATERIALS®
A QUIKRETE® COMPANY

Elk River, MN

The Mixer Operator is easily able to monitor the mix during its time in the mixer